THE HONORABLE CHIEF JUSTICE AND JUSTICES OF THE SUPREME COURT OF
NEW MEXICO

MEMBERS OF THE NEW MEXICO
LEGISLATURE

Pursuant to Section 34-9-3 NMSA 1978, we are pleased to present for your review the 72nd Fiscal Year Annual Report of the New Mexico Judicial Department.

The Judicial Branch of Government is now faced with more complex problems of administration than at any time in its past. The continually increasing demands by the people of the state for services at every level of the judicial system is requiring a re-examination of the interactions between employees, staff relationships, duties, and the new technologies now available to them. Electronic data processing must be carefully utilized if we are to maintain a high degree of judicial expediency.

During the past year, we have reviewed the use of various data processing systems, word processing systems, and other computer-related efforts. Considerable progress is being made through the use of those systems in processing information for use by the judicial branch.

We appreciate the efforts of the Legislature in assisting the judiciary to maintain systems which place the State of New Mexico in a position as a national leader in progressive judicial management and service to the people of the state.

Respectfully submitted,

Edward J. Baca

Honorable H. Vern Payne retired December 28, 1983, and the Honorable William R. Federici was chosen by the Court to serve as Chief Justice for a period of two years beginning January 1, 1984. Honorable Mary C. Walters was appointed by Governor Toney Anaya to the vacancy created by the retirement of Honorable H. Vern Payne. The Honorable Mary C. Walters became the first woman to serve on the Supreme Court of New Mexico.

On a monthly basis, the new cases on the regular docket of the Supreme Court were filed as follows. (Figures for the 71st, 70th, 69th, and 68th fiscal years are provided for comparison).

There were 42 cases entered on the Miscellaneous Habeas Corpus docket. There were petitions filed on 225 Rule 37 motions, 27 Rule 46 motions, 17 Rule 60 motions, 2 Rule 43 motions. These motions and petitions are entered on a separate docket and deal with the right to a speedy trial, right to a hearing, etc., pro se habeas corpus petitions. One Justice considers all these petitions each month and the assignment is rotated among the Justices.

Original proceedings, motions and petitions for prerogative writs are heard by a panel of three Justices each Wednesday, unless otherwise directed by the Court. The panels for the hearings are assigned by the Chief Justice each month on a rotating basis. The Court disposes of these matters either by Order or by written opinion.

Petitions for writ of certiorari to the Court of Appeals are considered by the full Court, and are either granted and assigned for disposition by opinion, or the petition is denied by Order of the Court.

The remainder of the cases filed in the Supreme Court are placed on the General Calendar to be submitted to the Court when at issue. Cases are submitted to the Court either by oral argument or on the briefs submitted by counsel.

The average elapsed time (in days) for the cases closed by written opinion and/or decision was as follows:

	72nd	71st	70th	69th	68th
From Notice of Appeal to Transcript*	73.1	100	94.8	91.9	92.0
From Transcript to Issue	86.3	72	75.4	77.3	82.4

From Transcript to Mandate	209.8	221.0	244.3	247.9	269.5

*As counsel has only 30 days to file a skeleton transcript after the filing of notice of appeal, no table was prepared on the Notice of Appeal to Docketing.

The following cases handled during the 72nd fiscal year had a direct effect on the average time taken to dispose of all of the cases due to the complicated nature of the cases and the complexity of the issues on appeal:

NO. 13,053, U S Brewers vs. Baca
NO. 13,443, State of New Mexico vs. William W. Gilbert
NO. 14,568, El Pueblo State Bank vs. Ortiz
NO. 13,991, State of New Mexico vs. Walter Scott Finnell
NO. 14,912, State of New Mexico vs. Marion A. Pruett
NO. 14,130, Chronis vs. Baca
NO. 14,211, State of New Mexico vs. Herman Richard Buzbee

It is also to be noted that counsel in some instances requested vacation of oral argument settings due to conflict in trial settings. This would definitely have an effect on the disposition figures. The normal time lapse from transcript to the brief in chief, pursuant to the rules, is 30 days; answer brief being due 30 days from the filing of the brief in chief. However, if the case has many trial tapes there will probably be requests for extensions of time for filing the briefs. All of these factors must be taken into account in reviewing the disposition figures.

The Compilation Commission has continued to service the public subscribers to the New Mexico Statutes Annotated. Approximately 990 full set holders are now participating in this service. There are, in addition, 2,015 partial set holders. There was one distribution of 1984 statute pamphlets and supplements made to the set holders during the 72nd fiscal year. One billing for these materials was authorized.

Volume 99 of the New Mexico Reports was published, and distribution made by the Compilation Commission.
